

FOUNDATIONS OF KNOWLEDGE TRANSLATION

What is Knowledge Translation (KT)? Wondering how to bridge knowledge to action?

First
Workshop

APRIL
9-10

Learn how to embed KT in your research!

Learn how to increase the use of your research knowledge!

Apply today — this KT course* includes 3 in-person workshops + online course materials + mentorship + a community of practice to support partnerships between researchers and knowledge users.

Who can apply?

This KT course in Vancouver is open to researchers in Vancouver Coastal Health Research Institute (VCHRI) organizations and those affiliated with VCHRI through post-secondary institutions including:

- Vancouver General Hospital
- UBC Hospital
- GF Strong Rehabilitation Hospital
- Richmond Hospital
- Lions Gate Hospital
- Community Health Services for the Sunshine Coast and Bella Coola
- Providence Health Centre
- St. Paul's Hospital
- Rural Health Research Centre
- University of British Columbia
- Simon Fraser University
- University of Victoria
- BC Institute of Technology

*There is a research component to this KT course — your team will be asked to complete surveys and interviews over a 2-year period as applicable.

How to apply?

1 Personal Information

Participants should register as a team (2 – 4 members maximum). Each team will include a researcher and a clinician and/or manager. Submit the names, complete mailing addresses, telephone numbers and emails for all team members.

2 Identified Health Care Challenge

Describe (in 1 paragraph) your identified health care challenge with an explanation of its relevance and the impact of the health problem.

3 Knowledge Translation and Your Research

Describe (in 1 to 2 paragraphs) the knowledge that will be translated including the supporting evidence base (e.g. there is good evidence from trials showing that...).

Application Deadline

February 21, 2014

Submit your application to: Rami Garg, St. Michael's Hospital
gargr@smh.ca 416.864.6060 ext 77696

All applications selected for the course will be notified by February 28, 2014. Future workshop dates are to be announced.

St. Michael's

Inspired Care.
Inspiring Science.

MICHAEL SMITH FOUNDATION
FOR HEALTH RESEARCH

Discover. Connect. Engage.

Vancouver
Coastal Health
Research Institute
Healthier lives through discovery

a place of mind

This course is offered by the Knowledge Translation Program at St. Michael's Hospital, the Michael Smith Foundation for Health Research and the Vancouver Coastal Health Research Institute.