KM Expo 2010: Bridging Cultural Boundaries: push, pull and co-production of knowledge

Register Now!

You are warmly invited to participate in the 2010 KM Expo: Bridging Cultural Boundaries. The 3rd annual KM Expo will explore the unique cultural boundaries that exist between university researchers, graduate students and their non-academic research collaborators from community organizations and government agencies. Featuring plenary, breakout, unconference and networking sessions, the KM Expo will explore how the push, pull and co-production methods of KM partnerships help universities and their partners become 'boundary organizations'.

Date: Tuesday, March 2, 2010

Time: 8:00 am to 5:30 pm

Location: Le Parc Conference and Banquet Centre
8432 Leslie St (Highway 7 and Leslie), Richmond Hill

Space is limited. Please complete the registration form below and return to kmunit@yorku.ca before Friday, February 19, 2010 or register online by clicking here.

What is KM?

We believe that knowledge has greater value when it is shared and implemented. Knowledge Mobilization is the active, two-way exchange of information and expertise between knowledge creators and knowledge users. The KM Unit at York University connects university researchers with community and government organizations to support the use of research in decision-making about social programming, public policy, and professional practice.
